Docket No. RM01-12-000

NOTICE POSTPONING CONFERENCE

(May 7, 2002)

This Notice postpones a conference previously scheduled for May 22, 2002, pursuant to the Commission's Notice of Conference issued April 12, 2002, in the above-docketed proceeding. The notice stated that the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission would be holding a conference on data and software needs to implement the Commission's Standard Market Design (SMD) rule. The conference was to be held at the Commission's offices in Washington, D.C.

Further information on the rescheduling of this conference will be issued when a new date is cleared.
